

Choose the correct adjective.

1. I felt less worrying/worried after listening to Bill.
2. She`s so boring/bored when she talks about politics all the time.
3. I get so embarrassing/embarrassed when my dad starts singing.
4. 'Scream' is probably the most frightening/frightened film I`ve ever seen.
5. Tennis is a tiring / tired sport.
6. I am very confusing/confused about what you are offering in your advertisement.
7. The film wasn`t particularly amusing/amused.
8. That`s not surprising/surprised news.
9. It can be very irritating/irritated when friends arrive late for a meeting.
10. By the time they reached the summit they were exhausting/exhausted.
11. I was really exciting/excited and wanted to see as much of London as possible.
12. I don`t like watching depressing/depressed films on my own.
13. She didn`t seem interesting/interested in what I was saying.
14. Most sequels are disappointing/disappointed.
15. Bears are terrifying/terrified when they are angry.

Answer key:

- | | | |
|----------------|---------------|-------------------|
| 1. worried | 6. confused | 11. excited |
| 2. boring | 7. amusing | 12. depressing |
| 3. embarrassed | 8. surprising | 13. interested |
| 4. frightening | 9. irritating | 14. disappointing |
| 5. tiring | 10. exhausted | 15. terrifying |